Marine is pleased to present its second show, Salon No. 2, Works 030 – 065. Marine seeks to showcase an ongoing program of group exhibitions by artists whose work is concept-led, vital and intelligent. Purposely eschewing a curatorial theme, each show is a considered showcase of works that are meant to be viewed as a coherent personal collection. While retaining a consistent aesthetic across all shows, each salon explores the idea of a fictitious collector with a different vision or focus. Salon No. 2, Works 030– 065 explores the idea of a collector with an eye for ritual, subversion and bold formalism.

Set in a private home, Marine also shows artists that work around themes that relate to architecture and the domestic – the subversion of which is a particular concern. In addition, Marine is committed to showing artists in all stages of their career in the same setting.

Salon No. 2, Works 030 – 065 presents the work of Drew Beckmeyer, Val Britton, Rives Granade, Ron Griffin, Mark Grotjahn, Terence Hannum, Jow, Seth Kaufman, Steve Kim, Matt Klos, Valerie Molnar and Bari Ziperstein.
